COUNCIL TO ANSWER REQUEST BY MAKING GENERAL INSPECTION

Decision Reached Upon Numerous Requests Presented at Monthly Meeting

TWO ORDINANCES ARE PASSED

One Calls for Licensing of Motor Vehicles And Others Prohibits Use
Of Cat-Outs on Automobiles—Council Has Busy Evening.

Council decided to go visiting next Tuesday night at their regular monthly meeting held in the council chambers Wednesday evening. All the visiting will be done within the borough and there will be considerable of it with the purpose in view of ascertaining direct information relative to reasons for requests for improvements, alterations and additions presented to them by citizens and property holders. With all members present except Councilman W. H. Calvert who was unavoidably detained, several complaints and petitions for improvements were heard.

Attorney Hugh E. Fergus was present representing Thomas Tomlinson seeking the payment of a balance of about $100 due on the erection of a wall at the rear of Mr. Tomlinson's property on Fallowfield avenue opposite the postoffice. Council decided to inspect the place on its proposed visit.

Mrs. Sedonia Jobs asked that a pole belonging to the Charleroi Telephone company at Meadow avenue and Second street be moved from its present location and council jotted this request down for attention on the tour of investigation.

Property holders and residents of the vicinity of Twelfth presented a request for the erection of a stairway over the hillside from Lincoln avenue up. This will be given attention by council on its trip Tuesday. A Lincoln avenue man expressed his desire to build a retaining wall and asked the right. Benjamin Watts complained his sidewalk was too low and placed the blame on the borough for furnishing the wrong grade. A man living near the coal tipple of the Charleroi mine complained of damage to his property from water and ashes. All these matters council decided to take up on their inspection tour.

May Pave Rose Alley.
Dr. H. J. Repman and T. D. Williamson presented a request for the paving of Rose alley leading from Cherry alley to Lincoln avenue. This alley is one running up the hill back of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church. Council instructed the borough solicitor to prepare an ordinance.

Solicitor Goes to Harrisburg.
Action was taken to pay one half the expenses of Borough Solicitor D. M. McCloskey to take a trip to Harrisburg as the borough's representative at the conference of boroughs to be held some time in May. Donora has also authorized Mr. McCloskey to represent that borough.

Discussion of the increase of the retaining fee for Solicitor McCloskey came up and it was determined to raise it from $50 to $100.

New Truck Driver Named.
Upon the resignation of Henry Lowstuter as truck driver being announced, the name of O. P. Higgins was submitted and he was chosen for the place. Lowstuter resigned to take

CHIEF ALBRIGHT IS REWARDED AND COMMENDED FOR HIS WORK

Efforts to Apprehend August Buono
For Murder Recognized by Council in Formal Action.

Chief of Police C. W. Albright is $100 better off as a result of his capture a few days ago of August Buono for the murder of Calorego Sanfilipi November 24, 1914. The borough council at their meeting Wednesday night took formal action to pay Chief Albright the reward of $100 which previously had been declared and in addition to that commended him by a resolution presented by Councilman H. L. Swickey and paid $50 of his heavy expenses in the chase.

The resolution was as follows: "Resolved, that we the members of Charleroi borough council by this resolution commend Chief of Police C. W. Albright for locating, arresting and placing in the county jail for trial August Buono, accused of murdering Calorego Sanfilipi in cold blood November 24, 1914."

BETTER SHIPPING CONDITIONS NOW

Matters Improve Along the Monongahela Valley Effect of Embargo Lessened

CARS PUT IN CIRCULATION

Shipping conditions from the Monongahela valley region have greatly improved during the last few days and railroad officials are anticipating the return of normal conditions within a short time. All lines in this region have placed 100 per cent cars since April 1 which is perhaps the first time in months this mark has been made.

Removal of many embargoes by eastern railroads and the weather conditions are given as the cause for the increased car supply. Since last January every railroad company in the region has been greatly handicapped by lack of sufficient empty cars, but local officials say that they are now able to secure all the cars necessary to meet the demands.

The removal of embargoes by eastern railroads took many cars from sidings where they had been laying for some time and placed them in circulation.

The demand for empty coal cars is increasing each day, but officials believe they will be able to meet all demands. With the coming of spring lake traffic has been resumed and a consequent demand for coal cars.

Notice.

The East Pike Run School District will build six (6) class rooms brick and frame. All architects who wish to make plans will please call on the board.

THREE STRANGERS ROB BANK OF HOUSTON AND GET AWAY EASILY

Holding up Cashier J. K. McNutt at the point of gun and threatening death, three strangers bound and gagged him, then robbed the tills of the Bank of Houston at Houston near Canonsburg of from $15,000 to $20,000 today at 12:30 o'clock. Then leaping into their waiting automobile they speeded away toward Pittsburgh.

The holdup occurred just after J. F. Gants, a clerk in the bank had left for lunch. Cashier McNutt was sitting at his desk at work. Hearing a noise he turned slightly and found himself looking into the muzzle of a big revolver. "If you speak you are a dead man," gently stated the man holding the revolver. The man's companion proceeded rapidly to bind and gag the cashier, then they started their work rifling the tills. Quickly they secured all the money they could find in bills and silver and left.

Little trace has been given of the daring thieves. When Cashier McNutt was found and freed he gasped out the story of the burglary and immediate chase was started. He described both men as wearing dark suits, and said one had a dark mustache. The description gave a clue but so far no capture has been effected and the men have succeeded in completely losing themselves.

BIDS NOT TABULATED; CONTRACTS HELD UP

The award of contracts for the grading and paving of six stretches of streets and alleys of the borough was held over by the borough council after opening the bids Wednesday night at the regular meeting. There was no tabulation of bids and consequently council could form no idea of the lowest bid. Engineer T. J. Allen was asked to tabulate the bids and have them in readiness for submission to council tomorrow night when the contracts are to be awarded.

There were five bidders on the work, Hastings & Piper, Thomas Arrigo, the Parsons Construction company of Brownsville, Todd & Baker of Uniontown and J. I. Edwards of Greensburg.

CRESCENT MINERS TO TALK OVER TROUBLES

A meeting of the old local of the Crescent mine has been called for Friday afternoon and a meeting of the new local has been announced for California the same time with the view of arranging a settlement if possible of the trouble existing now at the Crescent mine and putting an end to the strike. Adding to the interest is the announcement of the coming of President Van Bittner of District No. 5, U. M. W. A to attend one of the meetings and to plan it is stated for arbitration if that is possible. The outcome of the trouble can only be guessed. Conditions are similar to what they have been all the time since the strike was declared about two months ago by the old local.

EASTER EGG DYES NOT ON HAND IN VARIETY

Aniline dyes, with which egg colors are made, the practically off the market in some colors. They have always been made in Germany and since the war started only a negligible quantity has been exported.

The standard colors, red, green and blue, are the ones in which there is the greatest shortage. For more than a year and a half the dye trade has been more or less dependent upon such stocks as were on hand when the war started, and the staples have about been exhausted. Purples, violets, lavenders, yellows, oranges and such colors are still available, but staples are mighty hard to find the buyer said.

Not only the Easter egg industry is to be cramped for lack of dyes this year. Dyers and cleaners are having their troubles. Very few last season's gowns are being dyed blue this spring. For months no blue has been included in the offerings of one of the most popular and widely-known lines in the country. Nor will the farmer's barns be so uniformly red for years, red paint being scarce too. Women who have made a practice of dyeing their old straw hats may find difficulty in doing so this year.

One firm that has regularly sold about 200 barrels of hat dyes in western Pennsylvania reports that it will have only 70 barrels to dispose of this year.

THIRD EFFORT TO RAISE BARGES BEING MADE AFTER UNUSUAL PLAN

MINERS FROM 38 MINES IN TWO VALLEYS REPORTED ON STRIKE

James Oates of Charleroi in Charge
Of Affairs as Board Member of District No. 7.

With 38 mines—practically all in the Allegheny and Kiskiminetas valleys—closed down as the result of a strike of 8,000 miners, mills and factories in that region are facing fuel trouble. Unless the strike is settled within a few days, say strike leaders, many plants in the valleys may be forced temporarily to suspend operations unless they can obtain fuel from the already over-rushed mines of other sections.

Late Wednesday afternoon James Oates of Charleroi board member of Sub-district 7 of District No. 5 United Mine Workers stated that the Ford Collieries Company at Russellton had agreed to meet the demands, also the Bessemer Coal and Coke Company, at Curtisville. The miners will return to work at the Russellton and Curtisville mines.

STATE ROAD TO COST $135,000

Will be Constructed Between Bridgeville and Canonsburg Superintendent Says

DECISION MADE RECENTLY

Officials of the state department are completing plans for the improvement of the stretch of state road between Bridgeville and Canonsburg, according to William G. Dick, superintendent of state highways in Pennsylvania. Mr. Dick said that this section of road, which is 7 1/4 miles in length is the "missing link" of an improved road between Washington, and Pittsburgh and the east.

The surface of the road will be of concrete except on the extreme grades where brick paving will be made to make both automobile and horse riding easier. The highway department is still considering as to what width to give the improvement, but Mr. Dick said officials will likely decide on about 14 or 16 feet. The cost will range between about $135,000 and $140,000. About four miles of the road is in Washington county.

Decision to improve the road was made about two weeks ago at a meeting called by State Highway Commissioner Robert J. Cunningham. Since then surveyors have been working on the plans and it is contemplated that actual work on the highway will be begun within the next six weeks.

Two Other Barges to be Sunk, Chains Attached and Raised With One Between

NOW LOCATED BELOW DAM

Steamer Henry A. Laughlin in Charge
Of Work With Derrick and Crane
Boats On Hand—Barges Alone
Worth About $25,000.

Having failed in two previous attempts a third is being made to raise the two sunken barges of the Vesta Coal company just below Lock No. 4 dam and with an unusual method being used engineering skill will be tested to the utmost. The barges are laden with coal but both are believed to be in fairly good condition.

Two wooden barges have been located right above the dam to break the force of the current. Now the Henry A. Laughlin a towboat of the Vesta Coal company with derrick and crane boats is located below the dam and is filling with water and sinking two steel barges. These barges are being sunk one on either side of one of the coal-laden barges. When they are in proper position heavy chains will be placed under the one barge in the middle and then the two barges just sunk will be pumped out. The theory is that they will raise and bring with them the sunken barge and its cargo. Water is at a good stage for the work to be carried on.

The two steel barges broke away from the towboat Sallor on the morning of March 10 as it was heading them toward the lock. They sank with 65,000 bushels of coal, part of which was in a wooden barge which collapsed. The value of the two steel barges exclusive of the coal is about $25,000.

DEFINITE PROGRAM FOR FAYETTE IMPROVEMENT

Superintendent Clemmer of State
Highway Department Outlines Part
Of Plans for Work to be Accomplished the Coming Summer.

A portion of the road building program of the state highway department in Fayette county this summer has been announced by Superintendent C. L. Clemmer.

Superintendent Clemmer has not as yet completed his plans for road building this summer, but has already placed one gang of workmen on the National pike near Somerset and several gangs are repairing the unimproved roads in his district. Superintendent Clemmer has received instructions from the state highway department at Harrisburg to complete the improvement of small strips of the pike in his territory. When that work is completed the pike will be improved from Brownsville to the Maryland state line.

Work on the construction of the brick road from Newtown, South Brownsville, to Alicia, was resumed Monday by the Crossan company and that piece of highway will be turned over to the county for traffic by June 1, the officers of the construction company state. The contract for the Alicia

OUR VANISHING COAL

Showing the rapidity with which the river coal mines are being exhausted, it is only necessary to call attention to the fact that the first active mine of this character is at Blaine, just above Lock No. 3 says Editor L. E. Flint in the Donor Herald. Including this mine there are 10 collieries in the third pool which can deliver product on the river, but not all of them are in operation at this time.

Above the Blaine mine will be found Bunola, which is not operating, the coal being taken out at Mongah, then comes Coal Bluff, the Huston Run mine of the Diamond Coal company, Cincinnati, Mongah, Catsburg, Black Diamond, Gallatin, Sunny Side and Ella.

Of this number, however, but one is strictly a river mine—the Cincinnati. All others have rail connections. None of these mines are working coal from what is known as the "first hill," but are required to go long distances under ground in order to get to their supply. Many of these mines have been worked for years, operations having begun in some of them over 50 years ago, but still they go along, although their field of supply is a long way from its point of delivery.

Slowly, but surely, however, the coal vein is being exhausted and more and more we begin to realize that the Pittsburgh seam is not inexhaustible. There are other fields of course, but they cannot be so easily worked as the crop vein, which provided the pioneers of the coal business such easy access to the rich fields of mineral from which, however, they did not get those returns commensurate with the value of the product or of their toil.

Controlling a measles epidemic is much the same as controlling anything else. All depends upon the exercise of common sense. The object of quarantining is to control a disease. Anybody knows that when contact is prohibited there is no chance for contagion to spread and the same conditions apply to measles that apply to smallpox. The only thing, we are not as fearful of results, and therefore are more careless when we should show the same consistency in protection.

88 CASES OF DISEASE HERE DURING MARCH

During the month of March there were in Charleoi 88 cases of contagious disease coming under regulations of the health board and of the number measles were most numerous. Such is the report of Health Officer W. M. Darby made to the health board under quarantine are 61, measles 55, chicken pox 5 and mumps 3. Disinfections made during March numbered 22, unsanitary yards and lots reported 5, unsanitary cellars 2, bad sewers 2 and complaints 7.

Secretary A. O. Davis of the board has found that people are not observing the quarantine regulations as well as they might, especially in measles cases. Fourteen days is the quarantine period for measles. Some times it has been necessary to re-quarantine homes because of other cases. Care is advised, in measles cases by the health board because it is considered third worst disease for children. Where followed by pneumonia it is nearly always fatal.

FIRST HOME GAME AT PITTSBURG APRIL 20

Lid of National League Season in Western Pennsylvania to be Pried Off With Great Acclaim—Callahan Has Great Bunch.

On Thursday, April 20, business in Pittsburgh will be suspended long enough to help the Pirates blow off the 1916 baseball lid at Forbes Field. The National League season opens April 12 with the Corsairs at St. Louis. A four-game series there and a three-game joust at Cincinnati precedes the local opening at Forbes Field. This is just enough to warn the Bucces up and accustom them to the big noise.

Miller Huggins and his band of Cardinal hustlers are the opposition for the opening game in Pittsburgh and if reports are true the St. Louis ians will undoubtedly furnish a highly interesting contest and give the Bucces a hard run for the game.

Local fans will also have a chance for the first time of seeing Jimmie Callahan the new Pirates manager in action. From camp reports, the former Chicago White Sox leader is the original "Pepper Boy" of baseball, and the way he has the Corsair crew up on their toes has forced even the scribes of hostile towns who have seen them perform, to predict a brilliant race for them and pick them as one of the fastest teams in the National League.

Callahan has always been noted for being one of the craftiest leaders in baseball and with a team composed of the fleetest men in either major league circuit, there certainly is no reason why the 1916 Pirates should not hold their own with the best of them, notwithstanding the fact that with the passing of the Federal League season club has been strengthened. Undoubtedly the grade of baseball that will be served this season will be much faster than ever before, but the Bucces received their share of the new talent in big Art Wilson, the star catcher of the Chicago Club, so are at no disadvantage there, while there can be no question that in speed and skill and battery strength they have advanced considerably more than their rivals.

With the return of peace in the baseball world, interest also has again become rife in baseball affairs and the prediction is made that the opening games this season will see the highest attendance figures ever recorded for opening games, large as they have been in the past.

The Pittsburgh and Butler Stovers, two baseball organizations composed of thirty-third degree fans, are making active preparations for their usual outburst and many of the most prominent business concerns of Pittsburgh are planning to join them in making this the biggest opening day demonstration in the history of baseball.

The Pittsburgh Club, for the benefit of their out-of-town patrons, will continue their old custom of filling mail orders for their games. Orders should be addressed to the Pittsburgh Baseball Club, 916 Farmers Bank Building, Pittsburgh. Prices will remain as usual, box seats $1.25 and reserved seats $1.00.

HORNE'S

For the New Spring Outfit

You will find it most satisfactory to come to Pittsburgh, to make your selections at Horne's, because of the superior stocks of STYLE SUPREME wearing apparel we have ready. Only the most desirable of the prevailing modes find a way into our assortments—practical, wearable styles which you like to own.

The new frocks, suits, skirts, coats, and blouses are lovelier than ever. The bouffant silhouette has great possibilities for individuality and becomingness, and designers have cleverly used every avenue to bring out the charm of the different garments. Millinery, also, is more pleasing. Our Spring assortments show all the desirable styles, from the Chinese "Coolie" hat, to the picturesque Watteau, and 1830 poke bonnet effects. Reasonable prices.

If you want your new Spring outfit before Easter, you should try to get into the city this week. For those who cannot come to Pittsburgh, we have prepared an attractive representative, in the form of a beautifully printed booklet, which will show the diversity of our different lines. Illustrations sketched from life show the smart styles for all sorts of dress requirements.

We shall be pleased to mail this to you, if you will send your name and address at once.

Oil—ask your dealer.

A QUARTER of a cup of Atlantic Rayolight Oil in the wash boiler and the white things will wash real white. And without a bit of back-breaking, Blue-Monday, washboard rubbing. But the use of Atlantic Rayolight Oil doesn't end with wash day nor with heating and lighting.

Hundreds and hundreds of women, practical, economical housewives, have written us that they simply couldn't do without it; use it every day in their housework, find it the finest thing to polish windows, to keep their sewing machines running smoothly, to clean painted surfaces and for heaps of other purposes.

But these same women buy Atlantic Rayolight Oil by name. They can't afford to take a chance on the nameless, unknown kerosene—their white things are too precious to trust to anything but the best, the finest kerosene and that they know is

ATLANTIC Rayolight OIL

It burns without smoke or smell, but with a clear, mellow, white light; burns slowly, too. It never varies in quality and so always produces identical results.

But with all these advantages, Atlantic Rayolight Oil costs no more than the unknown, nameless kerosene.

SCRATCHED 10 YEARS HEALED IN ONE WEEK

Finally Cured by Using One Dollar Bottle of Amolox

One bottle of Amolox cured me. For ten years I suffered with eczema of the scalp, my head being covered with scales and scabs. I tried everything recommended and everything advertised without relief until I bought a bottle of Amolox. It relieved the itching at once and one bottle entirely cured my eczema. I heartily and cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers of this horrible disease.

James W. Seward, Brazil, Indiana.
Amolox ointment will quickly remove pimples on the face, blackheads and clear up a muddy complexion. Trial size, 50c. Bad cases of eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, tetter, lasting for years, require both Amolox solution and ointment to effect a cure. Recommended and guaranteed by Pipers Pharmacy.

Burgess S. L. Woodward reported that during March there had been 67 arrests made, $93 assessed in fines and $68 collect. Time was set for the balance.

Motor Vehicles Licensed.

An ordinance was passed finally relative to the licensing of motor vehicles this to include jitney busses. Rates are to be as follows: For two passenger vehicles $2, for five passenger vehicles $5, for 10 passenger vehicles $10, for vehicles with a capacity of more than 10 persons $15, for one ton trucks $5, for two ton trucks $10, for trucks of more than two ton capacity $15.

Another ordinance was passed prohibiting the use of cut-outs in mufflers. This ordinance as well as that for licensing motor vehicles was ordered printed and posted.

Adjournment was taken until Friday night for another meeting.

DEFINITE PROGRAM

cia road was awarded last summer to the Crossan company, but work has been delayed this winter because of weather conditions.

Three thousand feet of road in Brownsville township will be constructed this summer by the Crossan company. The improved road which is being constructed by the county, extends from the Brownsville borough line in Brownsville township to Bridge No. 1 over Redstone creek. The road will be of brick surface with a concrete base and cement filler.

A force of workmen was placed at work Monday by Superintendent Clemmer, dragging the National pike from the Stone House to Sommerfield. That will be preparatory to a permanent improvement. The pike from Chalk Hill to McMullen's quarry is to be improved with sandstone macadam.

That section of pike from Brownsville to Uniontown will be repaired by the highway department within the next few weeks. The road will be rolled, the bad spots repaired and the ditches opened. Following the repair work, the surface will be treated with oil.

Resolutions of Commendation.

Resolved That we the members of Charleroi Borough Council by this resolution commend Chief of Police C. W. Albright for his diligence and efficient service in locating, arresting and placing in the county jail for trial August Buono accused of murdering Cologere Sanfilipi in cold blood November 24, 1914.

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be spread on the minutes, published in the Borough papers and a copy sent to Chief C. W. Albright. Charleroi, Pa., April 5, 1916.

Baby Covered With Sores

Physician said Perfumed Powders Caused It. Healed by

"I am sending you a picture of my little niece, Edith White. When only ten days old she was completely covered with little festers or sores and our physician said it was caused by a perfumed powder they were using and told them to stop using this powder and use Comfort Powder, which we did. It quickly healed the sores and her skin does not show a blemish. I have been a nurse for a number of years and can highly recommend Sykes' Comfort Powder."

And All This Was Poins.
Royal banquets in France at any era between the reign of Francis I. and Louis XIV. would show the duchess, her napkin tied securely around her neck, nibbling a bone, the noble marquis surreptitiously scratching himself, the belle marquise withdrawing her spoon from her lips to help a neighbor to sauce with it, another fair creature scouting her plate with her bread, a gallant courtier using his doublet or the tablecloth as a towel for his fingers and two footmen holding a yard of damask under a lady's chin while she emptied her goblet at a draft. All of these at one era or another were the usages of polite society. During a feast of inordinate length it was sometimes necessary to substitute a clean cloth for the one which the carelessness or bad manners of the guests reduced to a deplorable condition.
A Queer Thing About July.
How we came to pronounce July as we do now with the accent on the second syllable is one of the unsolved mysteries of speech. Named, of course, after Julius Caesar, it should really be pronounced to rhyme with "duty," and so our forefathers actually did pronounce it. Spenser, for instance, has the line, "Then came hot July boyling like to fire," and even so late as Johnson's time the accent was still on the "Ju." It is one of many words which would startle those ancestors of ours, spoken as we speak them now.—London Telegraph.

SWANS TAUGHT TO SWIM.
The Black Necked Variety Are Afraid of Water When Young.
You're acquainted with the proverbial phrase, "Like a duck takes to the water." That may apply all right to ducks, but there are some water birds which have to be taught to swim, just as we do. They hate the water at first just as much as a boy hates the bathtub. One of these birds, which takes swimming lessons from its parents, is the black necked swan.
The swan babies are called cygnets. They are hatched in an elaborate nest which the parent swan builds along the edge of a pond. The little cygnets are able to walk and run as soon as they are out of their shells, but they can't swim.
So the mother swan takes them for a little ferry ride. She puts them on her back and starts out across the pond. The baby swans, frightened at first, soon get used to seeing water all around them.
One day the mother swan turns her long neck and gives her babies a gentle push into the water. Such a scramble and splash! The babies founder around and try their best to get back on their mother's dry feathers. Finally they learn that their feet are webbed paddles, given to them for swimming purposes, and they are able to glide over the water as gracefully and as easily as their parents.—Philadelphia North American.
ANCIENT FLOATING PALACE.
The Wonderful Ship Built For Hiero, King of Syracuse.
The antiquity of ships may not be gauged, for in Genesis it is recorded that ships were even old on the Mediterranean in the days of Jacob. Fully 1820 years before Christ, Ammon built long and tall ships with sails on the Red sea. Ninety years later the ship Argo was built. "The first Greek vessel which ventured to pass through the sea without sight of land, being guided only by the stars."
The wonderful vessel built for Hiero, king of Syracuse, excited curiosity and wonder. The craft was constructed under the direction of the celebrated mathematician, Archimedes, by a ship-builder at Corinth, from wood cut on Mount Etna. Her decks were paved with small and odd tiles, on which were depicted with wonderful art scenes from Homer's "Iliad."
On the upper deck was a gymnasium containing gardens planted with many kinds of shrubs, with walks between them overshadowed by vines and ivy. The roofs of which were nourished in moistened earth. Near this apartment was a dining room dedicated to Venus, paved with agates and precious stones. The walls and ceiling were of cypress, and the doors of ivory.—Argonaut.
No Law's Delay Here.
In Perak, in the Malay peninsula, lawyers find no business, for a modified form of trial by ordeal decides all disputes. In place of the legal practitioner the pleader is a native boy who is assigned to one or the other of the sides and is given a bamboo tube, in which is sealed the pleading of the person or party whom he represents. When all is ready two stakes are driven into the bed of a stream, and by aid of a bamboo pole the heads of the two boys are submerged at the same time. By grasping the stakes they are enabled to remain under water for quite awhile after their natural inclination would bring them to the surface, but at last one of them gives in and, releasing his hold of the stake, comes to the air. He is immediately seized, and the tube he holds is cast aside. The other lad is led ashore, his tube opened, and the document contained therein stands as the decision in the case.
Postmen In Faroff Days.
Postmen have a very respectable antiquity. They were known, the Sunday at Home points out, in the faroff days of King Hezekiah's reign, some 700 years before Christ. In the thirtieth chapter of the second book of Chronicles we read that "the posts went with the letters throughout all Israel and Judah," and further, that "the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh." The postman of old was a swift runner, who received the letter from the sender's hand and carried it direct to the person to whom it was addressed.

SWAYED BY THE WEATHER.
Some Persons Are Greatly Influenced by Climatic Conditions.
Weather influences on man may be roughly divided into two classes—viz. those which are direct and obvious, and those which are the more or less indirect and obscure. The influences belonging to the second class have been during the past decade or so the subject of intensive research.
Some persons are pronounced "meteorophobes," abnormally subject to "weather neurioses." Friedrich Nietzsche was one of these. Such persons, as a rule, are more specifically "cyclonophobes." The passage of cyclonic depressions, accompanied by certain characteristic types of weather is reflected in their sensation and in the mode of operation of their bodily and mental functions.
The gross change of barometric pressure pertaining to a cyclone, or "low," is not in itself an important factor in producing these manifestations since it never exceeds that experienced in the ascent without the effort of climbing, of a good steel hill. Indeed, many "lows" do not expose us to greater pressure of changes in the course of twenty-four hours than we experience in a couple of minutes in riding to the top of an average office building.—Baltimore American.
A GREAT DESTROYER.
One That is Actively at Work Every Minute of the Day.
I am more powerful than the combined armies of the world. I have destroyed more men than all the wars of the world. I am more deadly than bullets, and I have wrecked more homes than the mightiest of siege guns. I steal in the United States alone more than $300,000,000 each year. I spare no one, and I find my victims among rich and poor alike.
The young and old, the strong and weak, widows and orphans, know me. I loom up to such proportions that I cast my shadows over every field of labor from the turning of the grindstone to the moving of every railroad train. I massacre thousands on thousands of wage earners in a year. I lurk in unseen places and do most of my work silently. You are warned against me, but you heed not. I am relentless.
I am everywhere, in the home, on the streets, in the factory, at railroad crossings, on the seas. I bring sickness, degradation and death, and yet few seek to avoid me. I destroy, crush or maim. I give nothing, but take all. I am your worst enemy. I am Carelessness.—Holyoke Transcript.
Nations That Left No Sign.
There are two great nations of antiquity whose inscriptions cannot yet be read—the Etruscans and the Hittites. The Etruscans occupied a part of Italy corresponding roughly to what is now known as Tuscany. The Hittites at one time occupied a part of Palestine and united with the Canaanites to resist the invasion by the Israelites under Joshua. The Etruscan and Hittite inscriptions have thus far resisted the attempts of scholars to decipher them, though no one knows when some one may stumble on a bilingual inscription which will serve as a key, just as the Rosetta stone, discovered in Egypt in 1799, served as a key to the Egyptian hieroglyphics. In the new world the so-called Maya inscriptions, found on the ruins in Yucatan, are also a puzzle to scientists.—Christian Herald.
Not An Epicure.
One afternoon a sad-eyed hobo rambled up the garden walk of a suburban home and meekly tapped on the back door.
"Lady," said he in a tearful voice to the woman who answered his knock, "I ain't had a thing to eat since last week. If you wouldn't give me some bread or—" "What?" "Bread."
"Mary," suddenly interjected the woman, addressing some invisible person, "bring Towser out here at once."
"All right, dear lady," said the hobo in a resigned voice; "even dog meat is better than starvin' to death."—Philadelphia Telegraph.
Laughter.
Laughter begins either with the mouth or the eyes. Then come the other muscular groups, and then come the vocal expressions of laughter, such as brays, ruckles, sniggers, stimpers, giggles, snorts, grunts, foghorn rumbles, yells, shrieks, guffaws, huffs, chuckles, sniffs and all sorts of peculiar bird notes and musical sounds.—Exchange.
Coroners In England.
In early times the coroner in England was a revenue officer of the crown, and his business was to find out the criminals, extort their confessions and confiscate their goods to the crown. From records it appeared that King Alfred had a predilection for hanging his crowners because they did what was unjust.
The Great Condo.
The great military genius Conde was a precocious boy. At eight he understood Latin, and at eleven he gave out a treatise on rhetoric. When fourteen he had become thoroughly conversant with the principles of warfare and of all military tactics.
Disagreeable.

TESTS FOR HEARING.
Rigid Ordeals For Candidates For Our Army and Navy.
The physical requirements of American soldiers and sailors are of a high standard as compared with those of other countries. The test for hearing, for example, in our navy and army is more severe than of any other country.
One of these tests for admission to our naval academy may be taken as a type example of the thoroughness with which the candidates' faculties are tested. In this test the ticking of a watch must be heard at forty inches in quiet surroundings, and this ticking must be heard at that distance by each ear separately. In addition to this, the candidate will be rejected if there is the slightest suggestion of any diseased condition about any portion of the ear.
In all the foreign navies, as well as in our own, the severest tests of hearing are imposed upon the men who are to undertake submarine service. In this service even an officer will not be accepted if the surgeon is able to find any evidence that he has ever been afflicted with ear trouble at any time. Thus a slight inflammation of the ear, which occurred in childhood may disqualify the officer for submarine service, though his hearing may be so good that he would be readily accepted in any other branch of military service.—Los Angeles Times.
OLDEST AMERICAN STATUE.
Found Near Vera Cruz, It Was Made Over Twenty Centuries Ago.
A small stone statue found near Vera Cruz, Mexico, which has been in the possession of the United States National museum since 1903, has been identified as the oldest known dated antiquity in America. Its ancient Mayan glyphs inscriptions show that it was made 100 years before Christ, which is the oldest date authenticated in the new world.
This unique image was found in 1902 near the Gulf of Mexico, 100 miles southeast of Vera Cruz, and came to the museum through R. E. Clibb, the next year. It is of hard grayish green stone, carved into a rounded conical form, six and one-half inches high and three and three-fourths inches in diameter.
The upper part represents a human head with well defined features. The lower part of the face is covered with a mask, resembling the bill of a duck, carved in relief and extending down over the chest like a beard. The bird-like form is further emphasized by the wings, covering the sides of the figure. Beneath the wings the outlines of a bird's feet and legs are engraved.—New York Times.
Ancient Use of a Kiss.
A Roman woman in the ancient time was not allowed to drink wine except it were simple raisin wine, and, however she might relish strong drinks, she could not indulge even by stealth—first, because she was never entrusted with the key of the wine cellar and, second, because she was obliged daily to greet with a kiss all her own as well as her husband's male representatives, down even to second cousins, and as she knew not when or where she might meet them she was forced to be wary and abstain altogether, for had she tasted but a drop the smell would have betrayed her. So strict were the old Romans in this respect that a certain Ignatius Mercurius is said to have slain his wife because he caught her at the wine cask—a punishment which was not deemed excessive by Romulus, who absolved the husband of the crime of murder.
The Nice of Austria.
"The Nice of Austria" is the name by which Gorizia, or Goritz, is known among its habitues, owing to its mild climate. Curiously enough, the city furnishes a link with the French Bourbons, for in a Franciscan convent there lie the remains of Charles X. of France, the last of the Bourbons; of the Duke of Angoulême, his son, and of the Duc de Chambord, who died as recently as 1836. Gorizia, under Austrian rule, was the capital of the crown land of Gorz Gradisca and first appears in history toward the close of the tenth century, when it was bestowed on the church. It is still the seat of an archbishop, and its special industry, significantly, perhaps, has long been the printing of Hebrew books for the east.—London Spectator.
Ingenious Rimes.
Sir Owen Seaman is to be congratulated on his ingenuity in riming "Bagdad" with "swag, dad," but the palm for audacity in riming must remain with Browning, who matched "Tancredus" with "Tommy make room for your uncle us," or the seventeenth century bard who wrote:
The Duke of York a daughter had.
He gave the Prince of Orange her.
So now your majesty will see
I've found a rime for poringer.
—London Standard.
Welcome at Times.
"I wish a doorman," announced Mrs. De Style.

BULBS IN A BOWL.
An Easy Way to Cultivate Miniature Floating Gardens.
A novel way of growing bulbs, such as crocuses, has been tried with good success. After securing the bulbs the next thing is to get one or two rather large corks. Through these holes are bored and the bulbs fitted into the openings in such a way that the under side, from which the roots spring, is near the lower part of the cork.
Now obtain a large shallow bowl and fill this with pure water. Float the corks, with the bulbs in place, on the surface and set the whole thing aside in a rather shady position for two or three weeks. At the end of this time it will be noticed that the roots are growing down into the water; therefore forward a place in a sunny window should be selected.
The upper shoots of the bulbs will start to grow rapidly, and at this time it is a good plan to arrange a little moss to hide the upper surface of the corks, or, if preferred, however, grass or some other seed, such as cress, may be sown to provide a green covering.
There is nothing to do but to keep the bowl well supplied with water and change this now and again. Usually the flowers emerge, and then the effect is extremely pretty. The bulbs may be planted in this way any time up to early January, though naturally the sooner they are started the earlier they will bloom.—S. Leonard Eastin in St. Nicholas.
VICTORIA'S LETTERS.
Royal Secrets That Are Stored Away In Buckingham Palace.
"We may wonder if the world will ever be allowed to see the private correspondence amassed by the late Queen Victoria," says a writer. It is stored away in a strong room built into the walls of Buckingham palace, and the queen shared her confidence with no one.
So long as she was physically able to do so she opened and closed the safe herself and arranged its contents. When she was too feeble to do this she employed an old and trusted secretary, but even he had to work under the royal eye. He was never allowed to keep the keys nor to read the letters that he handled.
Queen Victoria was always a voluminous letter writer, and she was in constant communication with most of the royalties in Europe. Every domestic secret and privacy of royalty during half a century is said to be represented by the contents of this wonderful safe, and it is easy to believe that the modern historian would find his hands full if he were permitted to browse among these letters.
But probably he will have to wait a few hundred years, and then his popular audience will be a languid one. It is one of the ironies of life that we can never have a thing when we want it.—Pittsburgh Press.
A Royal Snake Slaughterer.
The "secretary bird" is one of the most precious birds in South Africa. It is a royal game, and any person destroying one is liable to a fine of $50. Majestic looking birds, they stand about three feet high and generally go in pairs. They are of drab color, with black, feathery legs, and are valued for their propensity for killing snakes. Where the secretary bird is seen there are sure to be many reptiles about. The bird beats down its adversary first with one wing and then with the other, at the same time trampling on it with its feet until the snake is sufficiently stunned to catch it by the head with its claws. Then the bird rises far up in the air and drops its victim to the ground to be killed. By this means thousands of venomous reptiles are destroyed.—London Scraps.
Silver Sword of Hawaii.
One of the most curious plants in the world and one of the greatest interest to all botanists is the silver sword. This exceedingly rare plant, with its magnificent silver spines and handsome crest, may still be found in profusion in the upper part of Kamae gap, the southern outlet of the vast extinct crater of Haleakala, on the island of Maui. It flowers from July to October and occurs hardly anywhere else in the world. Even stranger is the variety known as the green sword, which occurs only in Haleakala crater and is unknown to exist elsewhere.—Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Prince Henry the Navigator.
The kingdom of Portugal counted in its royal house one of the men who hold first rank in scientific attainment and practical application. He was the son of John I. of Portugal and Queen Philippa, who was an English princess. He spent his life in sending out ships on voyages of discovery, and it was through this Prince Henry, called "the Navigator," that Columbus got his idea of seeking for a new land across the sea.
Carrots.
Carrots were first introduced into England by Flemish gardeners in the time of Elizabeth, and in the reign of James I. they were still so uncommon that ladies wore bunches of them on their hats and on their sleeves instead of feathers.
Much Entertained.
Said Cholly—I have just been looking over a volume of revised statistics. Quoth Alzy—Well?
"Cholly—I had no idea there were so many interesting ways of breaking the law."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
The lessons of life are lost if they do not inspire us with the necessity of making ample allowances for the immature conclusions of others.

LOWER RIVER MARKETS BEING REORGANIZED

New Coal Wharfs Being Installed Along Ohio River by Pittsburgh Coal Company--Operations to Center Around Huntington, W. Va.

Through its river department the Pittsburgh Coal Company has taken over the reorganization of the lower river coal markets which have been taken over from the old Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company. Announcement was made this week that new coal wharfs would be established as the occasion requires down the Ohio River, for storing coal and distributing purposes. The company will depart from long-established customs by supplying those markets with other than coal from the Monongahela pools and will take coal from new mines which it has available in Kentucky and West Virginia. It is generally believed by coal men that about the last Pittsburgh steam coal has been shipped out of the Western Pennsylvania fields for southern consumption by the leading river interests. It has become too expensive and of too high quality to ship to the south, when better prices can be obtained in its own locality.

One of the points selected for shipping coal for the Southern market is Huntington, W. Va., where coal wharfs are being installed this week and where there has been a gathering of a large fleet of empty barges and boats for loading.

EVANGELIST SPEAKS OF PUTTING

HOUSE OF ONE'S MINE IN ORDER

Evangelist Ben S. Johnson at the First Christian church preached Wednesday night on "Setting Your House in Order." He said, "Set the house of your affections in order, set the house of your thinking in order, set the house of your speaking in order and set the house of your actions in order." The evangelist pleaded for preparedness for the day of judgment. Emily Carnahan and George Bowers sang a duet and Miss Thelma Duvall sang a solo. The subject tonight will be "Jesus is Lord." A solo will be sung by an out-of-town singer. Gospel singing will start at 7:30. The meetings close Friday night.

FAYETTE COAL AND COKE CO.

COMPLETES ITS ORGANIZATION

The Hecla Coal and Coke Company completed its organization Wednesday by the election of T. H. Given as president and J. H. Hillman, Jr., as secretary and treasurer. The directors in addition to the two officers named are James C. Chaplin, A. C. Robinson and G. S. Harrah, the latter of Uniontown, Pa. This company was organized to take over the property formerly of the Isabella Connellsville Coke Company, consisting of about 3,000 acres of coal, coke ovens and plant in Fayette county. The transfer to the new company was made on April 1, by John W. Chaifant, John O. Miller and Arthur E. Braun, who purchased and property for the bondholders of the Isabella Connellsville Coke Company at sheriff's sale early last month.

The property is considered a very valuable one and the new company, it is said expects to proceed at once to increase the output of the plant.
